

ACTIONS THAT CAN BE TAKEN TO COUNTER CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM

While this list is in no way exhaustive, the hope is that it can serve as a guide and give you some direction on where and how to start.

The work of the faith can be tiring and even sometimes dangerous, but it is rewarding and fulfilling every step of the way.

Individual	Congregation	Denomination	Community/State
Learn more about the history and language.	Host a webinar series/sessions	Draft strong language countering the practice	Draft letters to state legislature and Congress on national security threat
Research local communities of faith that are connected to this tradition	Be in community with congregations of another race or ethnicity from a learning posture	Host a lament segment at an annual meeting	Inform and educate your representatives (state and federal)
Discern and reflect our own contributions to Christian Nationalism (Read The Seven Deadly Sins of White Christian Nationalism by Carter Heyward)	Engage in a book study on Christian Nationalism bit.ly/XnNationalism	Develop resources for local congregations on the concern bit.ly/XnNationalism	Show up at local Council and Board meetings with your allies
Pray and repent, moving from piety to pursuing justice and peace	Preach a series on the tenets of Orthodox Christianity	Partner with other churches in your community	Start a book club to develop resources
Invite others onto the journey	Reflect and interrogate church practices that might be rooted in Christian Nationalism rather than the character of God	Host webinars, workshops, and seminars on the topic (solution and resistance oriented)	Host a lobby day to collaborate with other faith traditions and to build a local movement.

Courtesy of Kendal McBroom, Director of Civil and Human Rights at the General Board of Church and Society, The United Methodist Church

CONNECT WITH US

 919-828-6501

 info@ncchurches.org

 www.ncchurches.org

 27 Horne Street, Raleigh, NC 27607

  @northcarolinacouncilofchurches

 @ncchurches